ST. LOUIS EASY FOR CINCINNATI

Reds Run Away With Sunday Game by Score of 10 to 6.

Cincinnati, O., April 24.—The Cincinnati team had little trouble winning today's game from St. Louis by a score of 10 to 6. The visitors used four pitchers, and they fared about equally. Anderson, for Cincinnati, was wild, giving four bases on balls and allowing a sacrifice to the first five men. Suggs was hit hard also. Score:

FOR Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

Total of $70,000 Raised in Greensboro in Ten Days' Campaign. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Greensboro, N. C., April 24.—The campaign to raise $65,000 for a Y. M. C. A. building closed with $70,000 secured, with deferred subscriptions enough to make a sum total of $70,000. The campaign was planned for ten days, but the record for all other similar movements elsewhere in the United States was broken by raising more than the amount originally planned.

A resolution to erect a Y. M. C. A. building upon completion of the Y. M. C. A. building was unanimously adopted.

BAKER ABLE TO GO WITH COLTS

Shortstop, Who Was Taken Ill on Saturday, Recovers From Slight Attack.

Reports from his quarters yesterday indicated that Shortstop Baker, of the Richmond team who was suddenly attacked by illness just before the opening of the Saturday game, had sufficiently improved to leave the city this morning for Portsmouth, where the Colts will play three games. Last summer Baker had what was supposed to be appendicitis, though no operation was performed. The same trouble in milder form returned, Owner Bradley, who was at the park on Saturday, immediately called a doctor when Baker's illness was reported to him, and had him sent home in a motor car. He is expected to play as usual this week.

The Colts are ready for their first out-of-town battle of the season, and Manager Lawlor is hopeful of keeping up the fast lock. With three straightouts of three games, the Colts have a clean 1,000 in the percentage column, and they are trying to come back Thursday with the charm unbroken. Either Oll or Peterson will go in the box this afternoon.

Blacks Are Under Arrest.

Havana, April 24.—The culmination of the recent agitation of the race question in various parts of the island, which apparently was subsiding, was reached when General Evaristo Estenoz, the leader of the Independent Party of Colors, and four of his associates were arrested. This was followed to-day by the arrest of twenty-four more negroes in Havana, three in Oriente and two in Santa Clara. Those arrested in Santa Clara are charged with making exceptionally inflammatory speeches. All of the arrests were made in compliance with orders from President Gomez, who has announced his determination to proceed with the utmost vigor against the elements responsible for the agitation, which in effect is regarded as a seditious movement, calculated to develop open revolution against the government. It is probable that many more negroes will be arrested.

The Secretary of Justice, under the direction of the President, made a request to the Supreme Court to have the Audencia Court appoint a special judge to consider the charges against General Estenoz and others. Judge Albert M. Brown was appointed and immediately began the formulation of charges.

COLLECTOR BROWN LOSES HIS OFFICE

Successor Nominated Before He Knew That He Had Been Ousted.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Statesville, N. C., April 24.—A change has been announced in the collectorship of this internal revenue district, and the manner in which it was made has caused much talk and some feeling here. George H. Brown, who was then cashier of the First National Bank of Statesville, was appointed collector nearly four years ago under the Roosevelt administration. He and his friends here were astounded Wednesday when a local newspaper received a telegram from Washington stating that Henry Reynolds, of Wilkesboro, had been nominated for collector to succeed Mr. Brown. The latter took the matter philosophically, but made inquiry of the department at Washington to know "how come" the change without warning. In reply he was told that notice had been sent him the day previous that a man had been named for his place, and asking Mr. Brown promptly sent in his resignation, to take effect at the expiration of his fourth year as collector—July 15, 1910. No charges have been brought against Mr. Brown.

AMUSEMENTS

Academy—Benjamin Players.

Biyou—"Graustark."

"Before and After." Beginning to-night the Benjamin Players will be seen in a swiftly moving farce from the facile pen of Leo Ditrichstein, entitled "Before and After." The author has written some of the best farces ever produced in this country, being responsible for "His Matrimony a Failure," which ran all last season at the Belasco Theatre in New York, and also standing sponsor for "Are You a Mason?" and "All On Account of Eliza." Mr. Ditrichstein, who is also an actor of eminence, was so fond of "Before and After" that he starred in it himself season before last. In his support that season was Miss Catherine Carter, who will be seen in her original role of Mrs. Page this week.

Timber Deal Closed.

Lynchburg, Va., April 24.—The Ward Lumber Company, of Lynchburg, has just closed a deal by which it has come into possession of some of the holdings of the Monroe Lumber Company, of Brookneal, which consist of 1,000 acres of timber land in Charlotte and Campbell counties, along the line of the Virginia Railway. It is reported that the purchase price was upwards of $20,000, the purchasing company taking possession immediately.

THE END SEAT HOG

When the baseball season opens and the fan with pure delight wends his way with jubilation to the park, what is it that enrages him and makes him want to fight? Is it heat, or cold, or some by chance remark? Do you think his tender feelings will revolt at being shoved in the middle of the talcum powder fog? No, his rage is pointed solely at the man he never loved, who in summer plays the role of End Seat Hog. He is found, his paunch protruding blocks you neatly from your seat, when the crowd begins to swarm at 4 o'clock. And the nervous fan would gladly kick his carcass to the street, and introduce a meat axe to his block. But the End Seat Hog chews calmly on a sweet, red-headed end as you liken him to many yellow dogs. Oh, wouldn't it be lovely? wouldn't his name change to mud, if the season opened up for End Seat Hog? Maybe he'll get his some time and it won't be sympathy, for the shadow of the meat axe has been seen. In the meantime decent people hope and long for him to die and they'll guarantee to keep his memory green. And the she-ones! Oh, they're you with their great solidity, and perhaps you think they won't create a fog, I really hate to do it, but they're nothing else to be except a ghastly female End Seat Hog.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau.

The Times-Dispatch, 1103 Hull Street. Despite the heavy rainfalls of yesterday the fifteenth anniversary of Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church postponed from Sunday, April 24, was suitably commemorated, the addresses of the celebrants showing a retrospect of past work and inculcating renewed zeal for future endeavor.

At the special services in the Sunday school at 9:30 A. M., Messrs. W. H. Owens, R. L. Patram, Edgar Waldball and J. B. Walker made interesting addresses.

At 11 A. M. the Rev. W. A. Laughan, the first pastor of the church, preached the anniversary sermon. At 3:30 P. M. a home-coming service and reunion took place. All of the Methodist ministers of the Southside participated, and several former pastors of Asbury were present to lend voice to the occasion. A unique and impressive feature of this hour was the reading of letters from those who unfortunately were unable to attend the celebration.

At 8 P. M. the Rev. B. F. Upcomb, D. D., preached. The ingathering of the talent money from the ten weeks' campaign for the parsonage fund was taken in at the conclusion of this service.

Special music by the Junior choir at 9:30 A. M. and 3:30 P. M. and by the Senior choir at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. led by J. S. Renner, served to the success of the occasion.

Field Demonstrations.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., April 24.—The Virginia Horticultural Society will hold a series of field demonstrations on fruit growing in this section, the first of which will take place on the morning of May 6 at Fontella, in the splendid orchards of George E. Murrell. The society will have the co-operation of the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station in these demonstrations. The culture of fruits will be discussed from every viewpoint at this demonstration.

FIGHT FOLLOWERS HIGHLY PLEASED

Ben Lomond, Cal., April 24.—In the presence of a crowd of critical fight followers Jeffries gave a physical culture exhibition which more than satisfied the visitors. His condition, compared with his physical trim when he began training, shows a remarkable improvement, and for the first time he frolicked around the gymnasium with his old-time exuberance. Jeffries' work-out consisted of a session with the chest weights, followed by a fast mix-up with the medicine balls and the punching bag. He led up to the boxing bout by a preliminary exhibition of shadow boxing, finishing with three fast rounds with Bob Armstrong and two more rounds of roughing it with Farmer Burns.

The boxing was the event of the work-out and took place in the handball court, which was hotter than a Turkish bath. After the boxing, in which the big fellow showed greater speed and keener accuracy than heretofore, perspiration rolled off him.

Tex Rickard and Jeffries' friend Clarence Berry, an experienced sportsman, expressed surprise at Jeffries' marked improvement.

Berger has not hesitated to say Jeffries' work lacked ginger, but to-day he said he was satisfied for the first time.

"We would not possibly have hoped for anything better," said Berger. "Jim is in great form. About all he needs is plenty of boxing, and you may depend upon it I will see he gets it."

SEEKING TO FINANCE PROPOSED TROLLEY LINE

Lynchburg, Va., April 24.—The promoters of the proposed trolley line from Lynchburg northward through Amherst county and into Nelson county are active in their arrangements to finance the project. It is stated that preliminary surveys will be commenced in a short time, and it is generally expected that the line will start at the northern end of the James River bridge and that it will follow Sweet Briar College, Amherst Courthouse, going in a northerly direction to the Nelson county line, and probably into the Crabtree Valley. The incorporators of the proposed road, which will be known as the Lynchburg, Amherst and Northern Railway, are H. L. Page, president; J. T. Bonny, secretary; H. C. Joyner, J. E. Bowman, C. A. Jubert, Stickley Tucker, W. Ward Hill, C. L. Scott and C. J. Campbell, of Amherst; Wallace A. Taylor, of Lynchburg, and W. E. Walker, of Sweetbriar.

Leave for Reunion.

Bristol, Va., April 24.—A party of thirty ex-Confederate veterans, representing the S. V. Fulkerson Camp, of Bristol, left to-day for Mobile to attend the reunion. They were headed by Camp Commander John N. Johnson. Many other veterans, representing various Virginia camps, were aboard the same train.

BOX SCORES
